

LLS Pandemic Program and Service Offerings

- Offered a COVID-19 Fund - assisted nearly 20,000 patients (approx. $5M)
- Partnered with Subaru to provide almost 20,000 blankets to our COVID-19 Fund recipients
- Partnered with Karyopharm, Myeloma Crowd and Family Reach to provide masks to Myeloma patients
- Working with food banks/Meals on Wheels (home food delivery)
- Information Specialists are providing patients, caregivers, and health care professionals with:
 - Education about COVID-19
 - Internal and external COVID-19 resources (financial and social support)
 - Longer phone support & increased follow up calls
- Providing COVID-19 educational webinars, blogs, podcasts, an online chat, as well as virtual events such as blood cancer conferences, and support groups (English and Spanish)
- Initiated a COVID-19 clinical research study with AZ (acalabrutinib), PI: Dr. Michael Boyiadzis at U of Pittsburgh
- LLS Advocacy Department joined efforts with 28 other organizations to write legislators about importance of enacting several provisions related to COVID-19
- What is one way your organization can extend its reach helping patients during the pandemic? If possible, develop or expand partnerships with local organizations to explore more ways to help your community